"Borderless" (Kyonkarno Nac Sekur) was originally rublished on Mangabox free to read on the web in both English and Japanese. It was eventually mublished as a tanko in those volumes (how the bookst)

This is where it gets complicated. Chapter 15 was the end of a story are (the Yun/Kei/You triangle) but after the series got a paper publication this charter was never officially translated into English. In addition another story are was added (the Yuu/Satomi/Aki triangle). This are appeared on Comic-Walker but only in Japanese.

The chapter numbering also not messed up - this chapter is numbered 15 but the second are's Web rubblication starts on charter 14 again.
